Annual Report of the Judicial Conduct Commissioner for the year ended 31 July 2008

This is the third Annual Report since the Commissioner took office on 1 August 2005, being the date on which the Judicial Conduct Commissioner and Judicial Conduct Panel Act 2004 (“Act”) came into effect.

The Complaint Process

The Commissioner’s role under the Act is to receive and assess complaints about the conduct of Judges.

The procedure adopted by the Commissioner following the receipt of a complaint about the conduct of a Judge is to notify the Judge of the complaint and seek any comment which the Judge may wish to make. The Commissioner can obtain any Court documents, including transcripts of hearings, and can listen to any sound recordings. The Commissioner may also make other inquiries as the Commissioner considers appropriate. In carrying out his or her functions, the Commissioner must act independently and must also act in accordance with the principles of natural justice.

Once the Commissioner has completed the preliminary examination, the Commissioner may dismiss the complaint on one or more of nine specified grounds. If the Commissioner does not dismiss a complaint, the Commissioner must either refer the complaint to the Head of Bench or recommend that a Judicial Conduct Panel be appointed. The process is illustrated by the attached diagram.

The complaint process provides a level of judicial accountability in addition to other factors such as hearings being conducted in public, the requirement to give reasons for decisions, and decisions being subject to appellate review.

Advice to the Public

The Commissioner provides advice to the public about the complaint process through:

- A website which describes the complaint process and provides downloadable forms and guidance sheets.
- A brochure entitled “Complaints about Judicial Conduct”.
- Responding to telephone and emailed inquiries.
- Giving talks to interested groups.

Complaints Received

The following table shows the statistics for complaints received by the Commissioner for the year from 1 August 2007 to 31 July 2008.

Total	101	92	106

During the period 1 August 2007 to 31 July 2008, 89 complainants complained about 101 Judges

The following table shows a monthly comparison of new complaints received by the Commissioner.

The Commissioner dismissed 80 complaints during the year upon one or more of the grounds set out in section 16(1) of the Act.

The most common ground for the dismissal of complaints occurred where essentially the complaint called into question the correctness of a decision made by a Judge. Section 8(2) of the Act provides that it is not a function of the Commissioner to challenge or call into question the legality or correctness of any judgment or other decision made by a Judge in relation to any legal proceedings. The proper avenue for that is by way of appeal or application for judicial review.

Other grounds for dismissal were varied and included some on the basis that they were frivolous, vexatious or not in good faith.

Two complaints were referred to Heads of Bench.

No recommendation was made to the Attorney-General to appoint a Judicial Conduct Panel in respect of any complaint.

Complaints have been based on various grounds. By far the most common was that a decision, ruling or order of a Judge was wrong. However, other grounds included rudeness, unfairness, inappropriate remarks, failure to listen, bias, and predetermination.

Of the 31 unfinalised complaints in 2006-07, 5 remain deferred pending the conclusion of relevant Court proceedings or the determination of an appeal. The Act authorises the Commissioner, following consultation with the Head of Bench, to defer dealing with a complaint pending the outcome of the relevant proceedings or the conclusion of an appeal.

Coroners Act 2006

Since 1 July 2007, complaints concerning the conduct of Coroners are to be made to the Judicial Conduct Commissioner. As at 1 August 2008, no complaints concerning Coroners had been made to the Commissioner.

Responses of the Judiciary

The Commissioner is pleased to report that, with only isolated exceptions, Judges against whom complaints have been made have responded in a constructive and helpful manner. This materially assists the Commissioner in the examination of complaints and is appreciated by the Commissioner.

Amendments to the Act

Part 2 of the Judicial Matters Bill would amend the Act in various respects. From the Commissioner's perspective, the most important of these are as follows:

- a. The appointment of a Deputy Commissioner who can deal with a complaint when the Commissioner has a conflict of interest, is absent, incapacitated, or where there is a vacancy in the office of Commissioner;
- b. Empowering the Commissioner in appropriate cases to decide to take no further action in respect of a complaint, rather than dismissing it. Grounds for taking no further action include the following:
 - i. The complaint has been resolved to the complainant's satisfaction following an explanation from the Judge;
 - ii. The complaint is based on a misunderstanding.

The Commissioner welcomes these amendments and expresses the hope that the Bill is enacted before Parliament rises in advance of the election.
